ETHICS & PUBLIC INTEGRITY VISITING FELLOW

What is NAAG?
The National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) serves as the national forum for the 56 state and territory attorneys general and their staff to collaboratively and effectively address issues important to their work. NAAG also supports the work of the offices of attorneys general in protecting the Rule of Law and the United States Constitution.

What is NAGTRI?
The National Attorneys General Training and Research Institute (NAGTRI), NAAG’s training and research arm, provides high quality, responsive, and innovative training and research on a variety of topics.

What is CEPI?
The NAGTRI Center for Ethics & Public Integrity (CEPI) provides anticorruption and ethics training, research, and support to prosecutors and other government attorneys.

What is the Ethics & Public Integrity Fellowship?
CEPI seeks up to two 2019-2020 law school graduates for a one-year Ethics & Public Integrity Visiting Fellowship. Fellows must receive funding from their law school’s “Bridge to Practice” program, Public Interest Fellowship, or the equivalent. While there is some flexibility, Fellows should expect to start by September 15, 2020, and must commit to at least six months with CEPI.

The strongest candidates will:
• Demonstrate an interest in ethics/ anticorruption/ public integrity;
• Possess strong research, analysis, and writing skills;
• Work independently;
• Be prepared to propose a research or other project for our consideration.

Expected Fellow Projects
Ethics & Public Integrity Fellows will assist with research and training, including through projects that will provide lasting contributions to corruption enforcement and ethics. Expected projects include:
• Assisting with the finalization of the Anticorruption Manual;
• Supporting the creation of a state corruption cases database, which will be hosted on CEPI’s new website, including by doing research and outreach to courts and prosecutors involved in those cases;
• Conducting research on state and territorial government ethics laws;
• Developing and hosting one webinar that provides anticorruption and/or ethics guidance to government attorneys.

Note: It is expected this Fellowship will be primarily, if not entirely, remote.
