

 An official website of the United States government Here's how you know

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Office of Inspector General

---

Attorney General Bondi Enters $350 Million National Settlement with Ranbaxy Resolving Adulterated Drug Claims

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.-Attorney General Pam Bondi announced today that Florida has entered a $350 million national settlement with Ranbaxy Laboratories Limited and its subsidiaries resolving claims of drug adulteration. The settlement entered by all 50 states, the District of Columbia and the federal government resolves allegations that Ranbaxy knowingly manufactured, distributed and sold generic pharmaceutical products whose strength, purity and/or quality fell below the standards required by the Food and Drug Administration. The products consisted of 26 generic pharmaceuticals manufactured between 2003 and 2010 at two of Ranbaxy's facilities in India. Florida will receive more than $3 million as a result of the settlement.

Read more on www.myfloridalegal.com

---

Action Details

Date: May 14, 2013

Agency: Florida Attorney General

Enforcement Types: State Enforcement Agencies

---

Help improve this site